

EDGE OF SEVENTEEN

THE STEVIE NICKS
TRIBUTE

Edge of Seventeen – The Stevie Nicks Tribute delivers a stunning homage to one of music's most iconic voices and style icons: Stevie Nicks.

Fronted by the captivating Emily Brunsdon, this high-energy tribute captures the unmistakable spirit of Stevie Nicks both visually and sonically. Emily, who has portrayed Stevie in acclaimed theatrical productions for several years, brings authenticity, passion, and vocal prowess honed over years of performing the legend's timeless catalog. Now leading her own dedicated five-piece band, she channels the raw emotion, mystical allure, and powerhouse delivery that made Stevie a global superstar.

This two-hour fully live show takes fans on a thrilling journey through Stevie's extraordinary career—from the golden era of Fleetwood Mac classics like "Dreams," "Rhiannon," "Gold Dust Woman," and "Gypsy," to her electrifying solo hits including "Edge of Seventeen," "Stand Back," "Bella Donna," and "Rooms on Fire." Emily and her live band bring the energy, passion, and musical brilliance that defined Stevie's legendary performances.

With swirling shawls, signature twirls, layered harmonies, and spot-on instrumentation, Edge of Seventeen recreates the magic of Stevie's live shows while paying heartfelt tribute to her enduring influence on rock music. It's more than a concert—it's an immersive celebration of a trailblazing artist whose voice and vision continue to inspire generations.

"Stevie Nicks has been a profound influence on my life and career," said Emily Brunsdon. "Being able to honour her incredible legacy with such a talented band is a dream come true. We pour our hearts into every performance to transport audiences back to those unforgettable moments."
